

EFC Systems Releases “CDMS Inside”

Brentwood, TN – July 29, 2016 - EFC Systems, Inc. announces, release of CDMS Inside, bringing product lookup as well as live Quick Check chemical validation to users of FieldAlytics and Merchant Ag.

Ernie Chappell, President and Founder of EFC Systems says “CDMS represents the most complete and accurate compliance data available today...” We are proud to partner with CDMS in this relationship. We believe the integration is a perfect fit for customers that want an all-inclusive software solution. The integration with CDMS will provide comprehensive solutions to better serve our clients.

Scott Mueller, Senior Vice President at CDMS says, “This partnership will allow EFC Systems to better serve their customers by providing the most accurate and current product information available for crop protection and nutritional products.” EFC Systems is leading by integrating various product database components throughout the EFC Systems portfolio to meet the changing demands of agriculture.

About EFC Systems

EFC Systems delivers technology solutions throughout the entire Agribusiness supply chain holding numerous patents related to precision technology. EFC Systems supports advanced farming practices and enables seamless data connectivity among growers and their agricultural service providers. For more information, go to www.efcsystems.com

About CDMS, Inc.

CDMS, Inc. provides real time crop protection and nutritional product databases and decision support technologies to the agricultural and food industries with sales throughout the United States, Canada and the Americas. CDMS services are utilized by a broad-range of market participants including product manufacturers, distributors, dealers, consultants, applicators, growers, seed companies and food companies.

For more information, please contact:

EFC Systems

Ernie Chappell
President & CEO
615-864-8501
EChappell@efcsystems.com

CDMS, Inc.

Scott Mueller
Senior Vice President
(916) 215-0127
scottmueller@cdms.net